GCSCC Names New Director of Horse Meadow Senior Center

Grafton County Senior Citizens Council, Inc. (GCSCC) is pleased to announce that Guy Mitchell is the new Director of Horse Meadow Senior Center in North Haverhill.

Guy joins GCSCC after several years as a successful account executive and sales manager for Spectrum Enterprise/Time Warner Cable Business Class. He holds an M.S. in adult education from the University of Southern Maine and a B.S. in human services from Springfield College. Guy served in the U.S. Army after graduation from Woodsville High School.

Horse Meadow's veteran Director Deb Foster returned to the Center while GCSCC conducted the search for the new Director. "We are immensely grateful to Deb for coming back to Horse Meadow for several months, and we thank her for her continuing service to GCSCC, the Center, and the community as she helps with the transition," said GCSCC Executive Director Roberta Berner.

GCSCC provides a wide range of community-based services for older adults including home delivered and senior center meals, transportation, outreach and counseling, chore assistance, volunteer programs, health and wellness activities, and more. GCSCC is a private nonprofit organization that promotes, develops and carries out programs that support and enhance the health, well-being, dignity and independence of older adults. It operates from locations throughout the county, and sponsors RSVP's Volunteer Center and the Grafton County ServiceLink Resource Center.
